

THE DEAL

JOIN UP

TELL FRIENDS

THE VAULT

REACH OUT

Thrillist New York

The List

Thrillist is a quick, free, 4-times-weekly email that sifts through the crap to find guys the best services, gadgets, gear, bars and restaurants. We have two editions: Thrillist New York, which covers things local to the City, and Thrillist Nation, with info for guys everywhere. Sign up for both now.

The List

May 12, 2006

Running Down the Best of the Rest

Pre-Mother's Day Gorging: Rosa Mexicano Cooking Demo

Sat May 13, 10am; 9 W 18th St, between Broadway and 5th

$60 per person, includes tax and gratuity

If you haven't booked M-Day brunch yet, you're screwed. Instead, tell Mom you couldn't wait 'til Sunday and escort her to this cooking demo/luncheon. She'll learn to make Guacamole con Frutas, Chilaquiles Verdes and Galleta con Fresas. You'll finally learn to eat your mom's cooking.

Gorging: Harry's Steak and Harry's Café

1 Hanover Sq, between Stone and Pearl; 212.785.9200

Today, Wall Street fixture Harry's at Hanover Square gets reborn as two restaurants. Harry's Steak retains Harry's old school flavor, with a mural of winemaking monks, exposed stone from the 1700s, and steak. Harry's Café's more casual, with a long walnut bar, a lounge, and a menu featuring Lobster Spring Rolls, kebobs, and Crackling Pork Shank -- a dish brought over from Maloney & Porcelli's by exec chef Patrick Vaccariello, a.k.a. "That Cracklin' Pork Shank Thief".

Sports: Free Golf Lessons

Wed May 17, 7:30pm at The Gym

11 E 26th, between 5th and Madison; 212.889.3003

If your bankbook can't muster the distance for a Drive 495 membership, hit The Gym's no-cost seminar, where you'll pick up techniques and exercises designed to take your game to a place you've only dreamed of: the fairway.

maps by Google Earth ©2006

illustrations by Gus Vazquez

photography by Cosi at Photopass